History Of City

Dr. Jackson Engaged in Task For Commerce Body

Rev. Dr. E. B. Jackson, pastor of the First Baptist Church, is writing a history of the city of Alexandria for the civic bureau of the chamber of commerce. It is expected that it will shortly be completed. The history will contain sixteen chapters and illustrated. A report on the progress of the work will be made by Dr. Jackson at a meeting of that bureau tonight.

LIGHTNING SELECTS VICTIM

Pittsburgh, Sept. 27.—Seeking shelter in a barn on the John Wallace farm in Baldwin township this afternoon, when a terrific electrical storm passed over this section, John Stein, aged 15, of Bowin's Lane, was struck by lightning and killed. A moment later the barn, was packed with dry hay and grain, took fire. Several chums of the Stein boy, who were with him at the time, rescued the body from the flames.

CASE CONTINUED

John Wyatt, who lives at 513 Queen street, was arrested about 9 o'clock Saturday night by Policeman Durrer for an alleged violation of the traffic laws. It is alleged that when taken in custody he had a pistol in his possession. The police found 109 yeast cakes in his machine which were in separate packages. Soon after being arrested Wyatt furnished a cash bail bond of $100. When his case was called for this morning he asked the court for a postponement until tomorrow morning in order to have his witnesses and the postponement was granted by the court.

Three Injured

Washingtonians Treated at Hospital Following Auto Accident

Three Washington people were injured and their machine wrecked shortly before 4 o'clock Sunday morning when the machine collided with a tree in the road at Hume Springs, Arlington county, north of this city. The injured persons gave the names of Miss Louise Childs, 1297 Thirteenth street, northwest; L. Grogan, 733 Seventh street, northwest and Sam Oglethorpe, 3615 Water street. They were treated for cuts and bruises by Dr. Llewellyn Powell after which they left the hospital. The machine was considerably damaged.

COX SAYS HARDING IS A BREWER

Characterizes Anti-Saloon League Counsel As Mere G. O. P. Chattel

SAYS WHEELER TRICKY

Different Set of Questions to Nominees Calls Forth Statement—Delivers Thrust at Hays

Cheyenne, Wyo., Sept. 27.—Senator Harding was characterized as "a brewer who is apologizing for his holdings" in a statement issued here last night by Governor Cox, before the latter's departure to continue his campaign today in Nebraska.

Governor Cox discussed the respective prohibition positions of himself and Senator Harding, and charged that Wayne B. Wheeler, general counsel for the national Anti-Saloon League, had acted to "protect" Senator Harding, and was a "mere chattel of Republican headquarters."

Governor Cox asserted that questions asked him and Senator Harding by Wheeler were designed to aid the Republican nominee and the Governor courted further but identical questioning.

"The Governor's statement follows: 'My attention has been called to a dispatch from the East which quotes Wayne B. Wheeler, general counsel of the Anti-Saloon League, as saying that he has submitted questions to both Harding and myself—and that I had not responded, but Senator Harding had.'

"Let me direct the notice of the public to this significant circumstance. I was asked whether I was for or against any proposal to change the Volstead law. Senator Harding was asked whether he stood by his record vote on the eighteenth amendment and the Volstead act. This sharp difference will be noted; the question to me was based upon future developments, the one to Senator Harding was not. I was asked what I would do in the future; Senator Harding was not.

"The habitual trickery of Wheeler, which we are used to in Ohio, by the way, is obvious in the face of his oft-repeated statement that the Anti-Saloon League was only interested now in what might be done with the Volstead act, and yet he made no attempt whatsoever to ascertain Senator Harding's stand on what he, Wheeler himself, says is the real issue. This would seem to be carefully devised partisan plans. In fact, one would have expected it from Will H. Hays, the Republican chairman. That it was prepared as a protection to the Republican candidate, rather than as an attempt to ascertain his views, is perfectly clear.

"This idea would seem to be strengthened by the coincidence of events. On the day preceding Mr. Wheeler's statement, representatives of the Prohibition party made public in Chicago a letter from George Christian, Jr., Senator Harding's secretary in which two striking things appeared:

"First, That the Senator was interested in the brewery business; and, second, that if the Volstead act was changed by Congress, the Senator would not improperly impose his will on the lawmaking body. In the face of this disturbing revelation, first said was needed from some source. If it had been given by Chairman Hays, of the Republican National Committee, it would have been availing, but Mr. Wheeler, true to his adherence in the past to the reactionary influences of the commercial wing now in charge of the Republican party, came forward with a blundering and unscrupulous defense. It is inconceivable, how any sensible person would attempt to foist such a thing on the public, and, further, how the conscientious members of the Anti-Saloon League can have any further doubts as to Wayne Wheeler being, what I have already charged, a mere chattel of the Republican headquarters.

"If Mr. Wheeler is an honest man, why does he not prevent the records of both Senator Harding and myself on the liquor question, and then submit to us the same question: 'With agreement to print our replies there to without deceitful comment?' I would also like to ask Mr. Wheeler what change has come over the record of Senator Harding that has enabled Mr. Wheeler, as the spokesman for the Anti-Saloon League, to withdraw the condemnation by the Anti-Saloon League against the Senator before his nomination. How can he explain to the conscientious men of his organization his support for the presidency of the United States of a brewer who is apologizing for his holdings?"

HOW WOMEN QUALIFY TO VOTE

4th ward south of King, west of Washington.

All women must pay tax and register on or before Oct. 2.

Offense Six Years Old

Prisoner Who Got Archie Tibbs Money Arraigned—One of Parties Involved Died in Murther

Exactly six years ago Archie Tibbs colored, a cripple, had $12 stolen from him he claims, by Joseph Pollard, colored, and for this alleged crime of long ago Pollard for the first time was made to face the bar of justice this morning in the police court.

Pollard claimed that Tibbs at the time was under the influence of alcoholic stimulants and that Tibbs gave him the money to "keep" for him. Later he returned the money by an other colored man. The court asked where this man was and the accused replied that he was dead.

The court directed that Pollard go to his home near Gun Springs, Fairfax county, and get the money and return it to Tibbs.

STOLEN BICYCLE RECOVERED.

A bicycle stolen from Randolph Stout December 8 last has been recovered through the efforts of Stout. He saw the wheel in front of a business house and at once recognized it as his wheel. He called the police and took possession of the machine. The man who had the wheel told the police that he purchased it from another man for $20. In court today the case was continued until tomorrow in order to hear other witnesses.

MORE MURDER AND RIOTING IN BELFAST

Premeditated Killings in Falls Section Follows Attack on Public Officers

THREE SLAIN IN HOMES

Assassins Visit Houses and Shoot Down Men Suspected in Cold Blood—Fierce Battle in North of City

Belfast, Sept. 26.—The Falls district of Belfast was seething excitement yesterday, as a result of the murder Saturday night of a policeman, the wounding of two others and the vengeance enacted in the killing of three civilians, who were shot down in rapid succession by bands of men who visited their homes.

Previously, the shootings in this city had occurred in the heat of rioting, but now, for the first time, deliberately planned killings have been carried out. The affair had its beginning at 11 o'clock Saturday night as Constables Leonard and Carroll were patrolling the Falls road. When passing a public house they heard footsteps behind them. Swinging around they were confronted by two men armed with revolvers, who ordered "Hands up!"

Simultaneously with the order, fire was opened upon the officers and Leonard fell dead, the first bullet taking effect in his breast. His companion had a miraculous escape. Four shots were directed at him. Three of them missed, the fourth lodging in his thigh. Apparently looking both men dead, the assassins left.

At about the same time Constables Farrell and Keeney were fired upon in a locality about a mile from the scene of the other attack. The assassins sprang upon the policemen. Farrell was shot in the arm. Keeney was knocked down and several shots were fired at him while he was on the ground. Some of the bullets passed through his arm without touching his body, and he came out of the affair, unscathed, Farrell was taken to a hospital.

The reprisals came swiftly. Shortly after 3 o'clock three civilians, Edward Trodzen, John McFadden and John Gaynor, who lived near the scene of the attacks upon the policemen, were slain in their homes. Different parties visited each house.

Four men took part in the shooting of Trodzen, who was a barber. After knocking at the door they fired a shot through the barber shop window. Trodzen's son opened the door and the men, wearing masks, rushed upstairs. They dived Trodzen shots at him, piercing his skull. The men immediately left.

The scene of the second shooting was a hundred yards from the Springfield road barracks. McFadden opened the door when three men knocked. Several shots were fired at him, and he fell dead on the door steps.

Gaynor met his fate farther along the Springfield road. His mother answered the tapping on the door, and the men entered. She told them she would get a candle, but they rushed to a room at the top of the house, where they found their victim partly dressed. They made him walk down the stairs ahead of them, and fired three shots into his body, killing him. The distraught mother declares she can identify the men of the party.

At day Sunday large crowds congregated at the house where the tragedies had occurred, forming lines to view the bodies. Few police were seen on the streets but armored cars were patrolling the Falls section and a large body of military was on duty.

As a result of a conference, the military authorities decided to restore the curfew law, which had been suspended, but twenty-four hours' notice being essential, the restoration will not go into effect until Monday.

Miss Swaney, sister of District Inspector Swaney, of the Irish constabulary, who was shot and killed at Ligon on August 23, has accepted an invitation to go to the United States to testify before the commission of 100. Her acceptance was given on condition that assurance be furnished ed that the invitation was not a Sinn Féin propaganda move, and that similar invitations be sent to and accepted by relatives of the late Magistrate Alan Bell, Commissioner Smyth, Assistant Police Commissioner Redmond and 90 sergeants and constables, who have been slain since January, 1919.

London, Sept. 27.—The bulletin issued by the Irish self-determination league tonight says that Terence MacSwiney was weaker and more exhausted at that time than during the afternoon.

GOMPERS ASSAILS 'NORMALCY' PLEA

Writing in the current issue of the American Federationist, under the title "Normalcy vs. Progress," Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, says Senator Harding, the Republican presidential candidate, has summed up his position as in favor of "going backward," while Gov. Cox, the Democratic candidate, has declared for "going forward."

Mr. Gompers also says that the Republican national convention in adopting its platform "turned its back on labor" and declares that "every American worker, every earnest American citizen must strive ardently for the defeat of those who turned their backs upon labor and upon the people generally."

Dont's For Women

Representative R. Walton Moore Gives Timely Advice on Voting

Representative R. Walton Moore in addressing a mass meeting of women of the city Saturday night in the auditorium of the chamber of commerce under the auspices of the Virginia League of Women Voters gave the women a few "Don'ts" to adhere to now that they have obtained the right of suffrage. The principal don'ts were as follows:

Don't fail to vote.
Don't fail to vote intelligently.
Don't vote impetuously.
Don't vote your resentments.
Don't be in too much of a hurry to make a change.
Don't get pessimistic.

His subject to the women was "Citizenship." Opening his address he told his audience what is necessary in order to vote and how it is accomplished.

Although the agitation for the vote for women has been in progress for some time, Representative Moore said, it came with astonishing rapidity. The speaker told of the evil effects of not voting. Voting he said is an inescapable duty. Failure to vote he declared lets men into office not fit. By voting he said they can make the government as perfect as we wish and he added that by giving attention to public matters the women can vote intelligently.

The meeting was presided over by Miss Rose M. MacDonald, who declared that the women now have the vote and are ready to serve.

ATTENTION VOTERS

Public meeting in the auditorium of the Chamber of Commerce, Tuesday Evening, Sept. 28, at 8 p. m. P. J. Ryan, a lifelong Democrat will answer the question, "Why I am for Harding and Brooks?" All are invited 230-2c.

DANGER OF COAL FAMINE IS OVER

Assurance Given That Supply Will Be Adequate For All Demands

DON'T BE PANICKY

Production of Twelve Million Tons Weekly Is Promised Till December—Car Supply Improving

Washington, Sept. 27.—A reassuring statement asking house holders not to become "panicky" and begin the hoarding of coal and promising a country-wide distribution of fuel "just as soon as the Northwestern situation is cleared up," was issued here last night by the National Coal Association.

A shortage of cars still exists at the moment, the operators say, but railroad executives have promised to "live up to the requirements put upon them and a rapid improvement in supply is predicted.

"Householders may feel entirely confident," says the statement, "that by resisting any panicky tendency to hoard coal within the next few weeks they will not suffer for want of supply during the winter. Just as soon as the Northwestern situation is cleared up there will be enough coal released from that movement to make up any deficiencies that may exist. In the meantime, judicious distribution of the available current production will supply the immediate wants of small consumers everywhere."

"Through the cooperation of the rail roads, operators and distributors it is declared that the New England situation is now in such shape that no winter shortage or coal famine is likely.

"Ample coal is at the disposal of New England distributors to supply the immediate wants of New England consumers," says the statement, after referring to the priority orders on shipments for that section and the Northwest. "The outstanding difficulty with the New England situation at this time is lack of railroad fuel for storage for winter use. This is being straightened out.

"To insure the winter supply of coal for the Northwest, where the situation has been particularly serious, the railroads have promised to expedite the movement of open top cars under the service order of the Interstate Commerce Commission, so as to provide the 4,000 cars a week, carrying 1,200,000 tons, to the Great Lakes for trans-shipment to Lake ports. movement, it is agreed, must be kept up until the close of navigation if households in the Northwest are to be saved from extreme hardship and industries are not to be shut down at least for part time."

Prompt loading and unloading of cars is urged by the coal association, which says that "every effort is being put forth by the bituminous coal operators to attain a weekly output of more than 12,000,000 tons of soft coal from now until December 1 so as to forestall the possibility of a shortage anywhere in the country.

"The goal of 12,000,000 tons a week (Continued on Page Five)

Urge Women To Vote

Steps to be Taken Tonight by League of Virginia Women Voters

A meeting of the League of Women Voters of Virginia, a non-partisan organization, will be held at 8 o'clock tonight at the residence of Miss Rose M. MacDonald. The purpose of the meeting is to urge all of the women of the city to pay their poll taxes and prepare to vote in the coming election. It is expected that a canvass of the city will be made by those interested in order to get as many women as possible on the voting list. The time limit expires October 2.

BRITISH COAL MINERS' STRIKE POSTPONED.

Now that the strike of British coal miners which was to have occurred yesterday has been postponed for a week there is a bright prospect that it will not take place at all, and that a satisfactory settlement of the outstanding issues will be effected through the negotiations which have been instituted between the mine owners and their employees.

This is gratifying and not wholly surprising change of circumstance for which the credit is primarily due to the Premier's powers of persuasion and tactful diplomacy. Years ago at the beginning of his public career he achieved his first great success when as president of the Board of Trade, a threatened strike of railwaymen was averted by his mediation after every previous effort at the adjustment of the controversy of the workers and companies had failed. Now the confidence in his conciliatory abilities which his record had inspired has once again been justified, and he has rendered a service to the country whose importance hardly admits of exaggeration.

Yet while to Mr. Lloyd George must be accorded the honor which is undeniably his due for having evolved a plan of compromise which the miners could not reject without placing themselves in an untenable and invidious position before the people, it may be doubted whether he could have accomplished what he did, had not the miners, conscious of the weakness of their case, entertained grave misgivings as to the outcome of the struggle which they were inviting. It is a well-established fact that while a large majority of the miners voted for a strike they did so without any enthusiasm, and in many cases with a reluctance which only a sense of loyalty to their leaders served to overcome. This was particularly true of the Yorkshire district where the union funds had been depleted by a recent local conflict, and where, owing in part to the bitter opposition of the miners' wives, the strike majorities were significantly small. The women did not want another strike after the painful experience through which they had so lately passed, and they made their influence felt.

Then again there were many indications that in precipitating a disastrous struggle, which could not be convincingly justified, the miners would forfeit the moral support without which they could not hope for success. They would find that public opinion was unanimously arrayed against them. Already the great business interests were co-operatively arraying for a contest, which in some directions there was even a disposition to welcome upon the ground that these reiterated strikes and threats of strikes had grown to be intolerable, and that the time had come to accept the challenge of an organized labor which was multiplying its demands with a reckless disregard for the national welfare, and to force the situation to a definitive conclusion. Sooner or later as things were going it would have to be determined once for all whether the country was to be governed by the trade unions or by the duly constituted authorities, and the feeling was that this momentous issue might as well be decided right now.

Such are some aspects of the situation by which the miners and their leaders are confronted, and they will show a sound discretion in taking the way out of it which the Premier's proposition provides.

CLUES IN THE WALL STREET CRIME.

Nothing to justify the theory that the Wall Street explosion was accidental has been developed by further inquiry. It is highly improbable that a load of explosives designed for legitimate use would have been carried through a crowded city district in the middle of the day so unprotected as to risk a chance collision. Nor is there any evidence that such load was ordered by anyone or on any way anywhere. The character of the debris found after the explosion pointed clearly to criminal design.

Positive clues to the criminals have so far been lacking, so far as the public knows. But Mr. Flynn, the killed chief of the Bureau of Investigation of the Department of Justice, has had experts at work, and from their reports he has concluded that the explosive was a home-made concoction with nitroglycerine as the chief ingredient. He finds what he regards as traces of the handiwork of the anarchist gang, which long made Paterson notorious. But suspicion is a long way from discovery. No trace of the owner or driver of the wagon has yet been found. If the explosion had been accidental, the driver would surely have been among those killed by it.

All sorts of anonymous clues have been offered to the detectives, but ranks or would-be jokers seem to be authors of most of them. They hinder rather than help the work of running down the criminals. Yet the discovery of their identity is important, for the purpose not so much of advancing the investigation of the crime as of bringing them to book for endeavoring to mislead officers of the law. Whoever thinks there is anything funny in this sort of thing has a strange sense of humor.

Coach Lee Nalls, of the Virginia Athletic Club, had his football squad out for a long practice drill on the Shipyard field yesterday. The lads performed well and used many trick plays that will be tried out when they tackle their opponents on the gridiron during the coming football season. Every player is fast, and the youngsters are sure to make any 140-pound per man football team go the limit to beat them. Coach Nalls will use the following named players in the Virginians' line-up:

Remington, L. E.; Yates, L. T.; Wicker, L. G.; McKenney, C.; Beach, R. G. T.; Peyton, R. T.; Duncan, R. E.; John Nugent, Q. B.; Schafer, L. H.; Jimmy Alexander, R. H. and captain; L. Peyton, F. B.; Harry Howard, Owens, Cora, Eberhardt, Earl Cornet (champion wrestler 140 pounds, 1st and 2d Divisions, American Expeditionary Forces, France and Germany). Bowman, Poss, Sampson and Ralston substitutes.

Carl Mueller, the all-around athletic coach, will referee all games. W. W. Howard has been elected manager for the Virginians, and he will arrange football contests with any team averaging 140 pounds per man. He challenges any team of the above specified weight in Virginia, Maryland, and the District of Columbia to meet his gridironers on the Shipyard field—guaranteeing expenses and fair treatment to all visiting teams.

OFFER $10,500 FOR BOMBERS

New York, Sept. 27.—Greater New York and suburban districts yesterday were being plastered with notices of reward for information leading to the arrest of the perpetrators of the Wall Street bomb explosion.

The police distributed thousands of circulars announcing a reward of $10,500. On the reverse side of the circular, which is signed by Police Commissioner Enright, are photographs of the front and rear shoes worn by the horse that drew the wagon containing the infernal machine.

Every police department within a radius of 200 miles of New York will distribute the notices.

4 INJURED IN CRASH WHEN TRAIN HITS AUTO

Bethlehem, Pa., Sept. 27.—Although sustaining serious injuries when the machine driven by Robert E. Story Of A Bashful Man And Demure Maiden

Commences In Southern Virginia Ends
In Alexandria--A Realistic Romance

(BY T. M. ALLEN)

"Yes, I did promise you a nice watch and silver service," quoth Uncle Bill to the bride as they were emerging from the furniture store. Then he directed them to Saunders & Son where he soon acquitted himself of the obligation, adding to the above a handsome clock and some exquisite articles in cut glass ware. Hettie evinced real delight at the thought of so many useful, dainty and essential articles for her new home. "This jewelry house," remarked Uncle Bill as they again entered the street "always shows artistic wares and has the distinction, with its wide acquaintanceship, of being a most reliable and well-appointed jewelry establishment. Saunders & Son never holds out false lights to make a sale, either, he added as he selected a fountain pen.

"Nothing is so inspiring, or more elevating in the home than is good music," said Uncle Bill, and of course you will want a nice piano. Perhaps nothing affords more real pleasure and entertainment in life, "yes that is true interjected the bride, the piano is my favorite instrument and I want an R. S. Howard piano in my parlor. Most of my friends have this make, it is exquisite in tone and volume and such a beautiful, highly finished instrument. I could not be without it. Your wish shall be granted assured Uncle Bill. The R. S. Howard is handled here by J. M. Reed our best known and most reliable music dealer where one will always find a splendid display of pianos and musical merchandise in everything new and up-to-date. J. M. Reed is pleasant and business like in his dealings too, whose aims is to satisfy every customer. Hettie now has a new piano and a beautiful victrola and some new records.

"In my kitchen, Uncle Bill, I want a Tip-Top Range, the same as mother uses; and some table cutlery and queensware and also a manifold list of cooking utensils," said Hettie.

"For these we will go to Thomas Hoy's where I got the Certain-teed paints to paint the house the other day. There you will furnish your kitchen complete with every needful item. Mr. Hoy is the same man who put that nice roof on the new house, and did all the sheet-metal work. He has been known as Alexandria's pioneer roofer and sheet-metal worker for a long time and his word is his bond on every contract.

"There is just one thing that is indispensable to furnishing my new home complete," modestly suggested Hettie.

"What is that?" asked Uncle Bill, promptly, who thought he had gotten everything.

"A sewing machine—a Singer," said Hettie.

"Yes that's a fact; but we'll fix that very soon with H. C. Griffith the alert and wide awake city and district manager for the Singer company here, and he is an agreeable and reliable fellow to deal with, too. I hear the Singer machine is used in over seventy-five per cent. of the homes of the civilized world. It is a favorite with all intelligent housewives because of its simplicity and beauty and marvelous accomplishments in either plain or fancy sewing. Come with me to the office of the Singer Company," said Uncle Bill. "I'll pay for the latest model" and he did.

"Well, the next question on the docket," ventured Uncle Bill to Hettie, is to arrange about supplies for the larder. It is the housewife's sequel to maintaining the good graces of the men folks. Now for select fancy and table groceries, provisions and toothsome table delicacies, imported fruits, fine cheeses, condiments, and vegetables of every kind, I'll escort you to Leachman & Saum conducting a well appointed and completely stocked fancy-grocery, where there is always shown a varied assortment of the most tempting good things to eat in town. Patrons come here from every nook and corner hereabouts, and presumably for a reason. Perhaps it is because they appreciate the superior and correct ways that characterize the business dealings of Leachman & Saum our wide awake and well versed grocer and purveyor of the larder. This store has a large clientele that depends on it daily.

"Well, I've named the grocer," said Uncle Bill, "but equally important is the baker, for it is considered that bread is the staff of life verman will officiate.

President Wilson last night sent the following message to Mrs. Jacob H. Schiff:

"Mrs. Jacob H. Schiff, New York: 'May I not extend my heartiest sympathy on the death of your distinguished husband? By his death the nation has lost one of its useful citizens.'

AUTOJACKS ARRESTED;
SUNDAY-SCHOOL EMPTY

Chicago, Sept. 27.—A flourishing Sunday-school class was ruined here today because its leading members were in jail.

Four of its members fought a running pistol fight with the police when they were discovered riding in a stolen automobile. Commands to stop were answered by bullets and the driver put on full speed. They were run down when stopped by a traffic jam and the quartet jumped and ran through an alley.

When Gene McLaughlin and Anthony Ragusa were captured, they were members of a Sunday class, most of whom sang in the choir, and that they had stolen automobiles to attend church socials and planned and executed holdups after church meetings. They named enough companions to account for the empty pews.

Governor Cox Challenges
Harding on Mystery Letter

Cheyenne, Wyo., Sept. 27.—Governor Cox here Saturday night challenged Senator Harding to answer whether or not he had written a "mysterious letter" to Senator Johnson, of California in which he is alleged to have made "a direct and absolute promise" that if elected he will "scrap the league."

This "mysterious letter" has been the subject of comment by newspaper correspondents for several days and may prove to be one of the real sensations of the campaign.

ROOT BACK FROM EUROPE

Declines to Comment on Court of Justice Mission to Hague

New York, Sept. 27.—Elihu Root, who left the United States about three months ago to aid in the establishment of a permanent court of justice at The Hague conference, returned to day, accompanied by Mrs. Root, aboard the steamship Rotterdam. Mr. Root declined to say what he had accomplished during his stay in Europe.

"The nature of my mission abroad," he said, "prohibited me from making any speeches or giving any interviews in Europe, and that rule still applies."

Mr. Root would not say if he would take any active part in the Presidential campaign.

The Rotterdam was compelled to remain near Sandy Hook the better part of two days, because of the fog, and when Mr. Root was asked if he felt nervous, he laughed and replied:

"We apparently ran into the outskirts of the present political situation."

Mr. Root said he was enjoying good health and had "no plans for the immediate future but to get home."

Genera Must Use Beer

Geneva, Sept. 27.—The inhabitants of the Village of Martigny face the prospect of being able to drink only wine and beer for some time, the result of the town water works being washed away yesterday by the flood which swept through the Chamonix Valley, caused by the bursting of a glacier pocket. The flood is now receding, but it will be many weeks before the water works can be rebuilt. The damage done through the valley totals many millions of francs, but no lives were lost.

Priests Bar Women With Seant
Attire From Communion

Paris, Sept. 27.—A near revolution has been brought about at San Sebastian, the Spanish Monte Carlo, where the priests received orders from the highest pontifical authorities not to confess or to admit to Holy Communion women wearing low neck gowns, short skirts, or transparent stockings. The official proclamation announced that "these are immoral fashions imported from France," and pleads with the Spaniards to abjure the "lascivious modes." It announced that none would be shriven unless attired in proper modesty.

GOD'S COUNTRY AND THE WOMAN
FEATURING WILLIAM DUNCAN

Big snow scenes and the courage of men and women in the timberlands are the fundamentals of "God's Country and the Woman." It is one of James Oliver Curwood's best stories, and furnishes William Duncan with a role that shows his histrionic ability. He is forced to display quickness of wit and physical strength. A strong cast of capable players make the film one of the most realistic pieces of photography on the screen today.

NEW FALL SUITS and COATS

Here they are—charming, everyone of them—suits of intriguing jauntiness with smart flares to the coats, novel shapes in pockets and collars and skirts that suggest a graceful swing to one's walk.

COATS, there are also ample wraps of luxurious snugness, collar-ed to the ears in fur or showing just how irresistibly smart a self collar can be. Every garment is a triumph of designing and workmanship. The materials are those most favored this season for style and service. The workmanship suggests the hand of a "master tailor," and the styles are a true reflection of all that is smartest and most desired in today's fashions.

The exhibit consists of the Wonderful New "Miss Manhattan" Coats and Suits, the famous "Blackshire" Lines and others, a style of coat or suit for everyone no matter what their taste.

Don't miss our wonderful display of these beautiful modes—come in and see them whether you are ready to buy now or not you will be much pleased with your visit we are sure.

SAFETY FIRST ALWAYS!

Whether Walking or Driving

Cooperate With Others. They Have an Equal Right With You. Respect that Right as you Expect them to Respect Yours

Owners and Operators of Automobiles

Respect the rights of others. Remember that pedestrians have as much right as you. Always exercise care in passing crossings and street cars.

Users of the Sidewalks

REMEMBER

Pedestrians should give equal rights to others.

Stop, Look and Think "Safety" before you cross a congested street, or pass behind a street car, automobile or wagon. Always see what is on the other side of the object that you are passing.

Cross Streets always on the crosswalks. Go slow, look for an opening in the passing wagons and autos, then go quickly.

Don't start to go across the road until you know that it is safe, then keep going. Don't turn back.

Never rush across the road ahead of a car, auto or wagon. Take time, for perhaps an auto or wagon may be coming on the other side.

Look out for speeders and joy-riders. The fact that they may be violating the law will not make an injury any easier to bear.

Look both ways when crossing street. 'Tis the only safe way.

Being Sure Means Safety

③

Users of the Roadways

REMEMBER

Operators of trucks and motor cars should use great care in driving, especially so in congested districts and in the vicinity of schools.

Don't crowd pedestrians into a place of danger, with your motor car, truck or other vehicle.

Driving in street car tracks is dangerous and should be avoided.

Look out for Street Cars when crossing the tracks.

When you drive behind a street car, always look out for the other car as well as for any other vehicle.

When passing a street car, never do so by going on the left of it.

Before crossing railroad tracks use caution and know for a certainty that the way is clear.

Never pass a street car when passengers are being taken on or off.

All Users of the Streets---REMEMBER

The aged and the child. Give all concession to them that you can. Proceed in every way to make their passage as safe as possible. Keep in mind that you were a child once and that you will probably reach an advanced age yourself.

Face Forward, Please

Passengers alighting from street cars should never do so backward. Face the way the car is going for Safety.

Nail Down the Nails

Don't Leave Exposed Nails lying around in boards boxes. Last year 3,462 persons were injured in this manner in Massachusetts alone.

LOOK

Out for all

Danger Signals

and give due heed to them, that your progress may be made safer. Too much caution can't be used.

NEVER

Walk around

and do not crawl under them either. When the way is clear the crossing tender will raise them.

THINK

and caution, and you can go safely and without fear of personal injury overtaking you.

F. D. ROOSEVELT COUNTS ON VICTORY IN NEW YORK

Hyde Park, N. Y., Sept. 27.—Franklin D. Roosevelt spent yesterday at his home following a week of campaign speech-making throughout the State.

The candidate expressed much satisfaction with the results of his tour, which he said had given him "new hope" of Democratic success in New York. He would not say by what majority he expected his ticket to carry the State, but declared he was "entirely optimistic."

Mr. Roosevelt said his campaign managers had allotted him but 24 hours at home before beginning a second tour of the West.

Rome, Sept. 27.—King Victor Emanuel today flew over Rome and the surrounding hills in the dirigible 34, which it is expected, soon will cross the Mediterranean, either to Barcelona or Tunis, and thence go to South America.

The dirigible rose to a height of 6,000 feet. On his return the monarch praised the construction of the airship.

Inspector Is Out With Facts

H. W. Kiser Was All Run Down But Is Like Different Man Since Taking Tanlac

"Maybe my word will do somebody else some good, so I want to tell the world what Tanlac has done for me," said H. W. Kiser, of 1823 Maple Ave., Huntington, W. Va., while discussing the merits of the medicine recently. Mr. Kiser is car inspector for the B. and O. Railroad and is well known in fraternal circles, being a member of the following secret orders: I. O. O. F. Lodge 123; P. O. F. Lodge 33; and W. O. W. Lodge 66.

"For the past two years I had been in the worst sort of health, troubled with indigestion, nervousness, sleeplessness and a general run down condition," he continued. "I had practically lost my appetite and it seemed like everything I ate disagreed with me and bloated me up with gas, so that I had a heavy, stuffy feeling after every meal. My nerves were all on edge and the least unusual noise would nearly run me frantic. My sleep was restless and broken—I would sleep a few minutes, then wake up and then go back to sleep only to wake up again—that's the way I spent my nights, and when morning came I felt weak and worn out and just had to drag myself off to work."

"Several of my friends were taking Tanlac and it had done them so much good that I decided to try it and I began to feel better in no time. In all I took three bottles, and now I am feeling like an entirely different person and can do as big a day's work as any man. My appetite returned and I eat anything I want without being troubled afterwards at all. My nerves are as steady as a clock and I sleep so sound that I have to be waked up every morning. I am feeling fine all the time now, and am pleased to recommend Tanlac and pass the good word along to others."

was fixed by the operators early in the summer, but up to this time has not been reached because of the deficiency of car supply at the mines. No doubt exists in the minds of operators that the winter wants of the country will be met. But to accomplish this they agree that production must be stimulated, through improved car service at the mines. The matter has been impressed upon railroad executives within the last few days with assurances the carriers will live up to requirements.

The operators say it has been demonstrated that a flow of 12,000,000 tons per week can be produced if the car supply does not fail and that with production at this figure "the existing deficiency due to underproduction can be made up soon after December 1."

Production of soft coal during the week ended September 18 reached 11,614,000 tons, according to an official report issued by the United States Geological Survey, and surpassed the production with one exception, of any week since January. Total production for the calendar year to that date was 380,832,000 tons, an increase of 50,000,000 tons over 1919. It is estimated by the survey that production for 1920 is about 14,000,000 tons behind 1917; 43,250,000 tons behind 1918, but 51,000,000 tons ahead of last year.

VIRGINIA NEWS

Charlottesville—Albert Middleton Wrenn, 20 years old, of The Plains Va., a student in the Law School at the University of Virginia, died yesterday afternoon at University Hospital following injuries sustained in an automobile accident Saturday night while motoring with four fellow students a mile west of the city.

Cape Charles—Two men were plunged to death in a swamp at Wachapreague this afternoon when a seaplane fell 500 feet. Their bodies were buried deep in the muck. They were William Beck, 30 years old, the pilot, and Harry Boulter, a passenger. Spectators said engine trouble apparently caused the accident. Bell served as instructor in the army air service at San Antonio, Tex., during the war. He is a son of William P. Bell, druggist at Accomac, Va. Since the war he has conducted pleasure trips with the plane.

Winchester—An effort to enforce a State statute known as the vagrancy law failed in court here Saturday, when Leon Chrismore and Herbert Athey, already held for the grand jury on charges of violation of the "late liquor laws, were charged with living in idleness without visible means of support.

Fredericksburg—Mrs. Mary Staples widow of Peter Staples, a resident of Stafford County, near Potomac Run, was struck Friday by a southbound fast freight while crossing the tracks of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad at Daffan, six miles north of Fredericksburg, and perhaps fatally injured.

Lynchburg—The shortage of teachers felt elsewhere is not in evidence here either in the public schools or in the colleges. There are no vacancies in the public schools and the faculties of the three local colleges are all full.

Danville—Warning by another prisoner whose term is soon to expire thwarted a jail delivery here Thursday night, it was revealed today, when city jailer John R. Tuckett preferred charges against the two ring leaders in the plot.

Lynchburg—Lieut. Col. Robert E. Craighill, formerly of the First Virginia National Guard, has advised Adj. Gen. Jo Lane Stern that there seems to be no chance to reorganize a second National Guard company here.

DODSON WARNS
CALOMEL USERS

It's Mercury! Attacks the Bones, Salivates and Makes You Sick

There's no reason why a person should take sickening, salivating calomel when a few cents buys a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone—a perfect substitute for calomel.

It is a pleasant, vegetable liquid which will start your liver just as surely as calomel, but it doesn't make you sick and can't harm you.

Children and grown folks can take Dodson's Liver Tone, because it is perfectly harmless.

Calomel is a dangerous drug. It is mercury and attacks your bones. Take a dose of nasty calomel today and you will feel weak, sick and nauseated tomorrow. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone instead and you will wake up feeling great. No more biliousness, constipation, sluggishness, headache, coated tongue or sour stomach. You biggest says if you don't find Dodson's Liver Tone acts better than horrible calomel your money is waiting for you.

DODSON WARNS
CALOMEL USERS

It's Mercury! Attacks the Bones, Salivates and Makes You Sick

There's no reason why a person should take sickening, salivating calomel when a few cents buys a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone—a perfect substitute for calomel.

It is a pleasant, vegetable liquid which will start your liver just as surely as calomel, but it doesn't make you sick and can't harm you.

Children and grown folks can take Dodson's Liver Tone, because it is perfectly harmless.

Calomel is a dangerous drug. It is mercury and attacks your bones. Take a dose of nasty calomel today and you will feel weak, sick and nauseated tomorrow. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone instead and you will wake up feeling great. No more biliousness, constipation, sluggishness, headache, coated tongue or sour stomach. You biggest says if you don't find Dodson's Liver Tone acts better than horrible calomel your money is waiting for you.

Remains in North to Meet Pretty Girl

More than a year was spent by Philip Weyman in the great Northland because he was held there by the appeal in a beautiful girl's eyes. Here was an appeal he could not resist, a something which told him better and more impressively than could words that the girl was in dire trouble and that he could help her.

And when he heard the girl's story the year seemed all too short. In that time he unraveled the tangled threads which without his interference would have brought disgrace and dishonor upon her name, in so doing winning his heart's desire—the love of the girl herself.

Philip Weyman is the hero of James Oliver Curwood's "God's Country and the Woman," a Vitaphone production to be shown at the Idle Hour theater on Saturday, October 2. In it Curwood has embodied all the powers of vivid description of the frozen North which have made him famous, and his hero is of the usual rugged, virile Curwood type, fittingly placed in the photoplay in the hands of William Duncan.

Richmond—Norma Talmadge. The fact that Henry Sydnor Harrison's famous novel is the basis for "Captivating Mary Carstairs" is one of the many reasons why this photoplay starring Norma Talmadge at the Richmond Theatre tonight is one of the most interesting screen offerings in a long time. Bruce Mitchell directed this National picture, Alan Forrest appears in the well selected supporting cast.

At the Ingomar Wm. S. Hart will be seen in the red blooded western story "The Primal Lure" chapter 2 of Pathes thrilling serial "Ruth of the Rockies" will also be shown.

RAIDED AS RUM AGENT

10,000 Supply Seized in Home of Man Twice Tried for Murder
Cumberland, Md., Sept. 27.—Revenue men raided the place of Peter Weisenroff, at Westernport, this county, last night, bringing to Cumberland fifty-five cases of bonded whiskey, valued at $10,000. The liquor has been stored in the basement of the Federal building.

Weisenroff is the man who was twice tried for the murder of Sheriff Donald P. Davis, of Keyser, W. Va.; first convicted of second degree murder and on his second trial of involuntary manslaughter. He was recently granted a new trial by the West Virginia supreme court of appeals, following the sentence of Judge Reynolds of fourteen months in jail and to pay a fine $2,000.

Weisenroff waived hearing before United States Commissioner Thomas J. Anderson here on a charge of illegally having liquor in his possession and gave $300 bond for his appearance in United States court. He contended that the liquor was illegally seized.

It is said whisky has been brought into Westernport for some time from Pittsburgh by the truck load, Westernport being a distributing point for Cumberland and points in the Georges Creek mining region as well as nearby towns in West Virginia.
